

The Yavapai County Democratic Party is proud to present a special event:

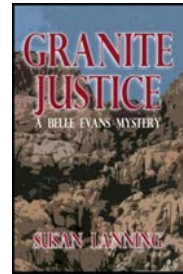

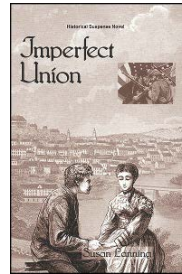

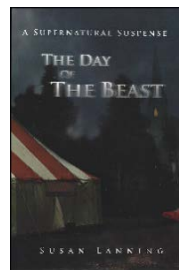

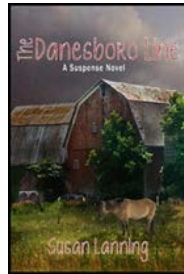

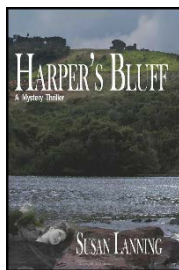

Authors Luncheon

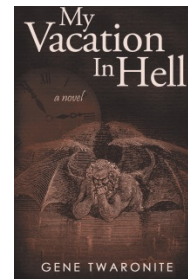

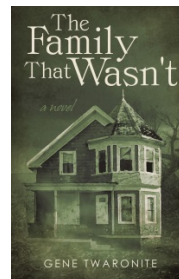

Featuring local authors Susan Lanning and Gene Twaronite

Susan Lanning is the author of Harper's Bluff, The Danesboro Line, The Day of the Beast, Imperfect Union, and now Granite Justice, the first title in her Belle Evans mystery series. Winner of several writing contests and most recently the Inland Empire California Writing Contest in fiction, Susan has now published five of her novels. Follow Susan on her website: susanlanning.com

Gene Twaronite's short stories, poems, and essays have appeared in numerous literary journals and magazines. He is the author of the young adult fantasy novels The Family That Wasn't and My Vacation in Hell, and a collection of his children's stories Dragon Daily News: Stories of Imagination for Children of All Ages. His latest book Approaching Wilderness: Six Stories of Dementia is available in Amazon Kindle format. Gene's humor column "The Absurd Naturalist" appears monthly in Senses. Follow more of his writing at his blog "The Twaronite Zone." thetwaronitezone.com

Gourmet luncheon provided by Mountain Institute Joint Technical Education District (MIJTED) Culinary Arts Students!

- Date: Friday, March 28, 2014
Time: 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM
Location: The JTED Culinary Arts Institute (formerly Fuddrucker's Restaurant, 2970 N. Park Ave., Prescott Valley - near Harkins Theater)
Cost: $25.00 Reservations required - call (928) 541-0413, M-F, 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM

The authors will discuss and share their books, and will be available for book signing. They have donated copies of their books for a raffle!